

ARTICLES,

Which are to be observed performed and kept by,

admitted and allowed to keepe a Common Ale-house, or Victualling house at his now dwelling house, being the Signe of the in the of in the County of Kent.

Kent. Ss.

IN PRIMIS,

He shall heare of any robbery, murder, or other heynous Crime committed against the publike peace of this Common wealth, that he shall certifie the Constable or Bortholder of the same Hundred, Borough or parish wherein he for the time being shall be dwelling, or one of the Justices of the peace within the said County, of all such persons as lodged in his house, at any time within two dayes before, or after any such robbery, murder, or other heynous offence committed, and what apparell the said person or persons had or used, and the Christian name and surname and names of the said persons, if he shall know the same.

Item. That he shall not keep any drinking, or victualling in his house, on the Sabbath dayes, or holidayes in time of divine Service, or Sermons, nor after nine of the clocke in the night in any day happening.

Item. That he shall not suffer use or keep any Carding, Bowling, or other unlawfull Games, at any time in his house, back-side or Yard.

Item. That he shall keepe two or more Beds from time to time, during this present licence, conveniently furnished; and fit to lodge any way forraigne person or traveller.

Item. That he shall not suffer any person or persons, to lodge in his house above one day and one night together, but such as he will answer for, as the Statute in that case requireth.

Item. That he shall not suffer any person or persons, at that time inhabiting and dwelling in the said Hundred, Borough, or Parish, to remaine and continue drinking, or tipling in his said house, other then such persons as are accepted and permitted so to doe, by the intent and meaning of the Statute; in that case made and provided.

Item. That he shall not utter, or sell lesse then one Ale Quart of the best Beere, or Ale for a penny; and of the small, two quarts for a penny, from time to time during this present license, and that he shall have in his house, Beere or Ale of both sorts, and Bread for the poore, or such others as will buy the same, to spend either out of his house, or in the same; but not otherwise, then the Lawes and Statutes in that case made, doe and shall allow of.

Item. That he shall not eat, or suffer to be dressed, or eaten any Flesh in his house, during the time of Lent, nor in any time of the yeare, upon Frydayes, Saturdayes, or other Fish dayes.

We whose names are hereunto subscribed, Justices of the Peace and Quorum for the said County, doe by these presents, License, Admit and Allow the above named to be a common Victualler, and to keepe a common Ale-house, or Victualling house in the parish, and place aforesaid and not else where, for and during the space of one whole yeare next insuing, and no longer, the said observing, performing, and keeping all and singular the Articles aforesaid, for the due observing whereof he is bound by recognizance to the Keepers of the Liberty of England by authority of Parliament, with two sufficient sureties, viz.

to the Statute in that case provided, given under our hands and Seales this day of Anno Dom. 16

according